MALT WHISKY

HIGHLANDS - This is the largest Whisky producing area from North of Glasgow all the way up to Thurso. Due to the large area the whisky produced is very diverse from full single bodied malts, which are sweet and rich in character from the north to lighter and fruitier whiskies found in the east.

GLENGOYNE 10 YO	£5.00
GLENMORANGIE 10 YO	£5.00
OLD PULTNEY 12 YO	£4.00
OBAN 14 YO	£6.50
DALWHINNIE 15	£5.50

ISLANDS - Whisky produced on the islands surrounding mainland Scotland offer an extremely diverse taste. There are nearly 800 islands off of Scotland's coastline with only a few actually inhabited. From Orkney in the far north to Arran in the South West - Just 40 miles from Western House Hotel.

ISLAY - Is a small Scottish Island which is the smallest region in terms of geographical area. Famous for it's strong peaty single malts, it is believed to be where whisky distillation in Scotland originated from as people arrived there from Ireland.

LAPHROAIG 10 YO	£6.00
BUNNAHABAIN 12	£5.00
LAGAVULIN 16 YO	£9.00

SPEYSIDE - The region of Speyside is located in the North east of Scotland surrounding the River Speyside. Famously known for sweet single malts with either no peat or very little peat present at all, because of this it tends to be a good entry level for beginners.

CRAGGANMORE 10 YO	£5.00
BALVENIE 12 YO	£5.00
GLENFIDDICH 12 YO	£4.50
MACALLAN GOLD	£5.00

LOWLANDS - Is the second biggest region in term of area but it is currently home to fewer than five distilleries. It covers from Glasgow and Edinburgh where it meets the border of highlands all the way down to the border with England. Lowlands whiskies tend to be light and gentle with very little to no peat
